Court Case Management has finally reached the beautiful mountains of Canmore. The Case Management Office (CMO) officially opened its counter on December 5th in this scenic town. Most of the staff involved in this implementation also participated in the CMO launches in Okotoks and Airdrie earlier in the year, so opening day went smoothly. Many of the benefits that the CMO has brought were quite apparent to defence counsel. Dale Fedoruk, who practices in Canmore, is looking forward to the new processes. "CMO will be great for adjournments," said Fedoruk. "It will prevent clogging up the courtrooms." Anne Wilson "loves the priority line for defence", thereby minimizing wait times.

Defence counsel is reminded of the convenience of booking matters on-line, particularly beneficial at this time of year. Remote Courtroom Scheduling is available to book dates in Canmore as well as in all of the CCM locations in the province. Searching files on RCS is available in the whole province.

The opening in Canmore wraps up this stage of implementation of the provincial expansion of CCM.

It is anticipated that there will be future locations identified in the new year.

Happy Holidays

The PIC Welcomes a New Member

The Provincial Implementation Committee (PIC) is pleased to welcome Calgary lawyer, Margaret Keelaghan, as its newest member. Ms. Keelaghan will join the committee as a defence counsel representative along with Laura Stevens, from Edmonton, who presently serves as a representative.

Ms. Keelaghan holds a BA (English) and LLB from the University of British Columbia (UBC) and started her own criminal law practice after her call to the Bar in 1991. Since then, she has represented clients at all levels of court in Alberta. Ms. Keelaghan is the advising criminal lawyer to Student Legal Assistance at the Faculty of Law at the University of Calgary and has volunteered with numerous legal and community organizations. She is a member of the Canadian Bar Association, the co-chair of the Criminal Defence Lawyers Association, a member of the Criminal Trial Lawyers Association as well as the Advocates Society. Her practice is focused in the area of criminal justice and civil liberties. She will be transitioning to the position of Managing

Margaret Keelaghan—Defence counsel representative on the Provincial Implementation Committee

Counsel at Calgary Legal Guidance in January 2013.

We look forward to working with Ms. Keelaghan and know that she will bring a great perspective on Justice in Alberta.

Announcements and updates for CCM are now posted on the Provincial Court Announcements site and available as RSS feeds. Click on the icon  to subscribe to our feeds. Instead of having to scroll through the Alberta Courts website to check manually for updates, set an RSS feed to do that for you.

If you are familiar with RSS feeds, this will be a valuable addition to your list and for those who are new to RSS feeds you can click  to subscribe.

To access RSS feeds, there is a tab named Feeds in your browser's "Favourites" or you can choose to have them delivered to your Outlook or Groupwise inbox (check your email settings for instructions to set up). It's almost like having a site send you an e-mail with the newest post, except you never give your e-mail address so you don't have to worry about spam or unwanted posts.

RCS Tip

Have you changed your email address?

Once logged in, RCS users can update their email address in Preferences located on the upper right hand corner of the screen.

The screenshot shows the 'Alberta Courts' website interface. At the top right, there are links for 'Welcome Training, External', 'Preferences', and 'Sign Out'. The 'Preferences' form is highlighted with a red box and contains the following fields: 'Current E-mail Address' (with the value 'just.ccmtrainer@gov.ab.ca'), 'New E-mail Address' (marked with a red asterisk), and 'Confirm New E-mail Address' (also marked with a red asterisk). Below the form are 'Save Preferences' and 'Cancel' buttons. A note at the bottom of the form states 'Fields marked with a * are required fields'. To the left of the preferences form is the 'File Search' section, which includes a 'Search by' dropdown and input fields for 'Last Name', 'First Name', 'Date of Birth' (with a 'YYYY/MM/DD' format), and 'Court Location' (with a '< Select an item >' dropdown).
