Effective: September 1st, 2021

The Criminal Rules of Court (Rules) come into effect September 1, 2021. All matters that are set for trial or preliminary inquiry after September 1, 2021 will be required to be set in accordance with the Rules. While use of the new Forms on existing matters is permitted, it is not required on matters scheduled for trial or preliminary inquiry prior to September 1, 2021. Similarly, the time periods required for notice and scheduling of pre-trial and trial applications only apply to matters scheduled after September 1, 2021.

Procedure:

1. All dates for trial or preliminary inquiry will be fixed through the applicable Case Management Office (CMO). All applications relating to those matters must be scheduled and filed with the applicable CMO. Matters in Airdrie, Canmore, Cochrane, Didsbury, Okotoks, Turner Valley, and TsuuT'ina will use the Regional CMO at RegionalCMO.Calgary@gov.ab.ca or 403-297-4396. 2. All trials that are scheduled to last more than one day will require a Pre-Trial Conference (PTC) to be booked at the same time as the trial date is fixed at the applicable CMO.
3. All trial matters involving allegations contrary to sections 151 or 271 of the Criminal Code of Canada will be required to have a PTC regardless of the estimated trial length. The date for the PTC will be booked at the same time the trial date is fixed at the applicable CMO.
4. Trial matters set for one day or less, with the exception of those matters involving offences pursuant to section 271 and 151 of the Criminal Code of Canada, will not require a PTC to be held.
5. The Crown must file a PTC Form 14 days prior to the scheduled PTC. Defence counsel must file a corresponding PTC Form seven (7) days prior to the scheduled PTC. PTC forms can be filed electronically at PC.CGY-CRIM@albertacourts.ca

6. PTCs will be booked at 15-minute intervals during the day. They may be conducted by tele-conference or in person.
7. All preliminary inquiries regardless of estimated length will require a Pre-Preliminary Conference (PPC). The date for the PPC will be booked at the same time the preliminary inquiry date is fixed at the applicable CMO.
