

EDMONTON PRACTICE NOTE:
LOW-COMPLEXITY OUT-OF-CUSTODY TRIAL CLOSURE

Effective: Oct. 8, 2021

In light of the current circumstances relating to COVID-19, including the declaration of a Public Health Emergency, Edmonton Criminal is suspending low-complexity out-of-custody trials (non-domestic-violence) scheduled between October 12, 2021 and November 5, 2021 inclusive.

There will be no presumptive adjournments — a new trial date will be set on the currently scheduled trial date through the CMO. If an accused is in custody on the low-complexity trial matter, it will be moved to courtroom 355 to be assigned through the Enhanced Trial Assignment Process.
